Who is eligible?

EMPLOYEES

As an active, full-time or part-time employee working minimally 16 hours per week, you are eligible for benefits on the first of the month coinciding with, or following your date of hire.

DEPENDENTS

You may enroll eligible dependents in many of the same plans you choose for yourself. Eligible dependents include:

- Your legal spouse or domestic partner.
- Your children, up to age 26, regardless of student, marital, or tax dependent status. This includes your biological, adopted, step children, or domestic partner's children, as well as children whom you have legal custody by court decree.
- Children of any age, if incapable of self-support, due to mental or physical disability.

Dependent Verification Documentation

Please note, the following documentation may be required when enrolling qualified dependents:

SPOUSE

- A copy of the front page of your most recent federal tax return confirming the dependent is your spouse.
- A marriage certificate and proof that the marriage is still valid, such as a utility bill, or bank statement, dated within 30 days showing both your and your spouse's names (black out any financial information).

DOMESTIC PARTNERS

- Document dated within 30 days showing your domestic partner status, such as a recurring monthly bill or statement of account. It must list both you and your spouse's name, the date, and your mailing address
- A signed Affidavit of Domestic Partnership along with required documentation dated within 30 days showing your domestic partner status must be provided to the Benefits Administrator before an approval of coverage will be made. Please contact the Benefits Administrator in Human Resources for a copy of this form.

CHILD(REN)

Please provide one of the following:

- A copy of the child's birth certificate/hospital birth record or adoption certificate naming you, or your spouse, as the child's parent. The document must list the first and last names of the child and parent(s).
- A copy of the court order naming you or your spouse as the child's legal guardian.
- When adding a step child or domestic partner's child, you must also provide documentation of your current relationship with your spouse as requested above.

Let's Cover Some Terms

We understand healthcare lingo can be confusing. Please take a moment to review these terms, which may be referenced through this guide.

Allowed Amount
Maximum amount on which payment is based for covered health care services. This may be called "eligible expense," "payment allowance," or "negotiated rate." If your provider charges more than the allowed amount, you may have to pay the difference.

Balance Billing
When a provider bills you for the difference between the provider's charge and the allowed amount. For example, if the provider's charge is $100 and the allowed amount is $70, the provider may bill you for the remaining $30. A preferred provider may not balance bill you for covered service.

Co-pay
A fixed amount (for example, $15) you pay for a covered health care service, usually when you receive the service. The amount can vary by the type of covered health care service.

Co-insurance
Your share of the costs of a covered health care service, calculated as a percent (for example, 20%) of the allowed amount for the service. You pay co-insurance plus any deductibles you owe. For example, if the health insurance or plan's allowed amount for an office visit is $100 and you've met your deductible, your co-insurance payment of 20% would be $20. The health insurance or plan pays the rest of the allowed amount.

Deductible
The amount you owe for health care services your health insurance or plan covers before your health insurance or plan begins to pay. For example, if your deductible is $1,000, your plan won't pay anything until you've met your $1,000 deductible for covered health care services subject to the deductible. The deductible may not apply to all services.

Emergency Room Care
Emergency services you get in an emergency room.

In-Network
The facilities, providers and suppliers your health insurer or plan has contracted with to provide health care services.

Out-of-network
A provider who doesn't have a contract with your health insurer or plan. You'll pay more to see a non-preferred provider. Check your policy to see if you can go to all providers who have contracted with your health insurance or plan, or if your health insurance or plan has a "tiered" network and you must pay extra to see some providers.

Out-of-pocket Maximum
The most you pay during a policy period (usually a year) before your health insurance or plan begins to pay 100% of the allowed amount. This limit never includes your premium, balance-billed charges or health care your health insurance or plan doesn't cover. Some health insurance, or plans, don't count all of your co-payments, deductibles, co-insurance payments, out-of-network payments, or other expenses toward this limit.

Premium
The amount that must be paid for your health insurance or plan. You and/or your employer usually pay it monthly, quarterly, or yearly.

Primary Care Provider
A physician (MD – Medical Doctor or DO – Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine), nurse practitioner, clinical nurse specialist or physician assistant, as allowed under state law, who provides, coordinates, or helps a patient access a range of health care services.

Urgent Care
Care for an illness, injury or condition serious enough that a reasonable person would seek care right away, but not so severe as to require emergency room care.

Our vision plan is embedded in both the Traditional and High Deductible Medical Plan. To find in-network providers, please visit www.premera.com.

- Create an account at www. premera.com and download the app for easy access to the costs charged for your health services. You can:
  - View all recent claims
  - Search for specific claims by type, status, family member, or date

Dental & Orthodontia Coverage

Did you know that oral health is essential to general health and well-being? Oral disease can cause pain and infections that may lead to problems with eating, speaking, and learning. It can also affect social interaction and employment potential. Our dental plans help you maintain a healthy smile through regular preventative dental care and coverage to fix problems as soon as they occur.

- Create a MySmile® account for secure, 24/7 access to your ID card, benefits information, out-of-pocket cost estimates, and more! The "Find your member ID" tool makes registration easy. Visit DeltaDentalWA.com to create your account today!

Plan Features	You Pay:
	PPO Provider	Non-Participating Provider
Annual Benefit Max (Per person)	$2,000	$2,000
Annual Deductible Individual Family	 $25 $75	 $25 $75
Diagnostic & Preventative (I.e. exams, cleaning, x-rays)	Covered at 100%	Covered at 100%

Major Services (I.e. dentures, implants, crowns)	50%	50%
Orthodontia (Per person)	$1,000	$1,000
Balanced Billing	No	Yes

You may visit any dentist of your choice, but you will receive the highest coverage when you visit in-network providers. If you visit a non-network provider, you will not benefit from discounted rates and could pay more for services. Balance billing happens when a doctor or hospital bills you for the leftover difference between their total charge and what your health insurance pays. This usually occurs when you see an out-of-network provider who does not have a contract to accept your insurance plan's set payment rates. To find an in-network provider near you, visit deltadentalwa.com.

What is the difference between a HSA and a FSA?

Both accounts let you:

- Use tax-free money to pay for qualified medical expenses[1]
- Make tax-free payroll contributions
- Pay for your spouse and dependents too

Plan Features	Health Savings Account	Flexible Spending Account (Medical)
Fund availability	Funds available as you contribute	Get full annual amount on day 1 of plan year
Fund expiration	No use-it-or-lose-it, keep your money forever (even if you change health plans, jobs, or retire)	Funds expire if you don't use them (The IRS does set annual rollover but expenses must be incurred during the plan year and the reimbursement must be requested before the end of the three month run-out period)
Investing	Invest[4] your HSA tax-free, like a 401(k)	Cannot invest FSA funds or grow your account
Contribution changes	Change or update anytime	Only during enrollment or 'qualifying life event'
Health plan type	Requires HSA-qualified health plan	Works with any health plan type

Health Savings Account (HSA)

For those who elect to enroll in the qualified High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP) and do not have secondary coverage, you may elect to enroll in a Health Savings Account (HSA). A HSA is way for you to set aside pre-tax dollars for many out-of-pocket medical expenses, such as co-payments, deductibles, and medications.

- HSA funds can be changed at any time, and the funds will roll over year after year.
- HSAs also stay with participants throughout their lifetime and may be passed onto a beneficiary.
- TriState Health makes a significant contribution to qualifying participants HSA and varies depending on how many dependents are covered under your HDHP.

Flexible Spending Account (FSA)

A Flex Spending Account (FSA) allows you to set aside pre-tax dollars for many out-of-pocket medical expenses, such as co-payments, deductibles, medications, and more. Each year, you elect the annual amount you want to contribute, up to a limit set by the IRS. At TriState, we offer three types of FSAs: FSA Medical works with the PPO plan only, Limited Purpose FSA only works with the High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP) and can only be used for vision and dental expenses, and a Dependent Care FSA which is used for dependent care expenses and is not dependent on any medical plan in which you may or may not choose to enroll.

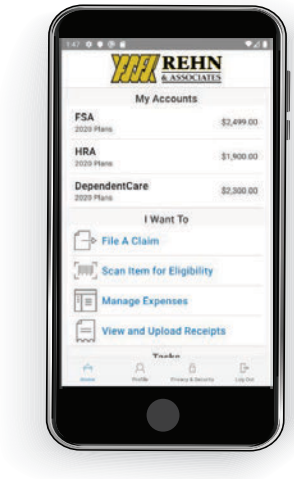

Unlike an HSA, FSA elections must be made each year, no later than the last day of open enrollment or upon hire.

- Once made, the election is irrevocable and cannot be changed.
- Funds must be used by the end of the plan year or they will be forfeited.
- TriState Health does not make contributions to your FSA, this is funded solely by you, the participant.

Account Access At Your Fingertips

Keep up-to-date on your HSA account, download the HealthEquity mobile app for easy, on-the-go access to all of your health accounts.

To check your FSA healthcare account balances and submit receipts anywhere, download Rehn CDH Mobile app on an iPhone, Android, or tablet device.

In both apps you can:

- Check current health care account balances
- View account activity and receive alerts via text message
- View transaction details
- File new claims with receipt images
- Review expense information
- Submit health care claims and upload receipts using the mobile device's camera
- Manage expense receipts
- Promptly file claims for their reimbursement accounts

Disability Insurance

If you experience an injury or illness that prevents you from working, disability coverage through Symetra provides partial income replacement to help financially. You may also receive wage replacement through the Washington Paid Family Medical Leave (WA PFML). For more information about WA PFML, please refer to the following page.

SHORT-TERM DISABILITY (EMPLOYEES WORKING OUTSIDE OF WASHINGTON)

Short-Term Disability coverage pays you a portion of your earnings if you cannot work for up to 8 weeks due to a disabling illness or injury. You are automatically enrolled in Short-Term Disability at no cost to you.

Benefit %	Max Weekly Benefit	Sickness Benefits Starts	Injury Benefits Starts
70%	$1,500	On the 8th day	On the 8th day

Washington Paid Family & Medical Leave for Employee Working in Washington State

Similar to short-term disability, Washington Paid Family & Medical Leave (WA PFML) is a wage replacement program for our eligible employees whose physical work location is in Washington. WA PFML provides paid time off when a serious health condition prevents you from working, when you need to care for a family member or a new child, or for certain military-related events. It's here for you when you need it most, so you can focus on what matters.

HOW IT WORKS

Nearly every Washington worker—whether you work full-time or part-time in a small to large business—is eligible for up to 12 weeks of Paid Family and Medical Leave. You need to work 820 hours in Washington, or about 16 hours per week, over the course of about a year. You can get up to 16 weeks if you have family and medical events in the same year, or up to 18 weeks in some cases. Leave doesn't have to be taken all at once. You can use these weeks within your "claim year," which starts when you apply and then runs for the next 52 weeks. When that claim year expires, you can then be eligible for leave again.

You apply for leave with the Employment Security Department and will get partial wage replacement, typically up to 90 percent of your pay.

YOUR RIGHTS

If you meet the requirements, you have the right to take paid time off using Paid Family and Medical Leave. If you qualify for Paid Family and Medical Leave, we, as your employer, cannot prevent you from taking it. We also cannot require you to use other types of leave, such as sick or vacation days, before or after taking Paid Family and Medical Leave. The program is funded by premiums shared between workers and TriState Health. A calculator to estimate premiums is available at paidleave.wa.gov.

Am I eligible?
Paid Family and Medical Leave is available to almost everyone working in Washington. You can receive the benefit when you work 16+ hours a week Washington state and experienced a qualifying event.

What if I don't live in Washington, do I still have the deduction?
Yes, if you work in the state of Washington, regardless of where you reside, you will pay into the state fund.

What if I work in Idaho, do I still have the deduction?
It depends on if the majority of your worked hours are in Idaho or Washington. If you work mostly in Idaho, then you will not have a deduction.

Accident and Critical Illness Insurance

Symetra offers voluntary Accident and Critical Illness insurance to help when times are tough. You never know when a severe illness or injury might happen in your family. New Health Insurance Marketplace Coverage Options and Your Health Coverage

Beginning in 2014, there is a new way to buy health insurance: the Health Insurance Marketplace. To assist you as you evaluate options for you and your family, this notice provides some basic information about the new Marketplace and employment-based health coverage offered by your employer.

WHAT IS THE HEALTH INSURANCE MARKETPLACE?

The Marketplace is designed to help you find health insurance that meets your needs and fits your budget. The Marketplace offers "one-stop shopping" to find and compare private health insurance options. You may also be eligible for a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premium right away. The open enrollment period each year for health insurance coverage through the Marketplace runs from Nov. 1 through Dec. 15 of the preceding year. After the open enrollment period ends, you can get coverage through the Marketplace only if you qualify for a special enrollment period or are applying for Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP).

CAN I SAVE MONEY ON MY HEALTH INSURANCE PREMIUMS IN THE MARKETPLACE?

You may qualify to save money and lower your monthly premium, but only if your employer does not offer coverage, or offers coverage that doesn't meet certain standards. The savings on your premium that you're eligible for depends on your household income.

DOES EMPLOYER HEALTH COVERAGE AFFECT ELIGIBILITY FOR PREMIUM SAVINGS THROUGH THE MARKETPLACE?

Yes. If you have an offer of health coverage from your employer that meets certain standards, you will not be eligible for a tax credit through the Marketplace and may wish to enroll in your employer's health plan. However, you may be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium, or a reduction in certain cost-sharing if your employer does not offer coverage to you at all or does not offer coverage that meets certain standards. If the cost of a plan from your employer that would cover you (and not any other members of your family) is more than 9.5% of your household income for the year (adjusted to 9.12% for 2023), or if the coverage your employer provides does not meet the "minimum value" standard set by the Affordable Care Act, you may be eligible for a tax credit.1

Note: If you purchase a health plan through the Marketplace instead of accepting health coverage offered by your employer, then you may lose the employer contribution (if any) to the employer-offered coverage. Also, this employer contribution -as well as your employee contribution to employer-offered coverage- is often excluded from income for Federal and State income tax purposes. Your payments for coverage through the Marketplace are made on an after-tax basis.

HOW CAN I GET MORE INFORMATION?

For more information about your coverage offered by your employer, please check your summary plan description or contact Charity Goodell at cgoodell@tsmh.org or 509.758.5511 ext. 4713.

The Marketplace can help you evaluate your coverage options, including your eligibility for coverage through the Marketplace and its cost. Please visit HealthCare.gov for more information, including an online application for health insurance coverage and contact information for a Health Insurance Marketplace in your area.

WA Cares Act

On behalf of TriState Payroll: If your permanent residence is outside of Washington, you may be eligible for an exemption from the Washington Cares Fund payroll deduction.

The Washington Cares Fund provides long-term care benefits for Washington residents. If you work in Washington, payroll deductions will automatically be withheld unless you receive an approved exemption from the State of Washington and provide the exemption letter to Payroll.

You may be eligible for an exemption if:

- You live outside of Washington.
- You are the spouse or registered domestic partner of an active-duty service member of the U.S. Armed Forces.
- You have non-immigrant work visas.
- You are a veteran with a 70% or higher service-connected disability rating.

To review the exemption requirements and apply, please visit the Washington Cares Fund.

If you are eligible, please scan the QR code to apply for an exemption.

Once you receive your exemption letter, upload it to UKG and notify TriState Payroll at payroll@tsmh.org.
